

Amy Pomykal

Faith is not knowing God can, it is knowing God will.

A Good Girl

The baby of the family, Amy Pomykal grew up to be bold and passionate, embracing life and adventure. Raised in a loving, God-honoring home, she learned about God as a child, but never realized what He was preparing for her. Rededicating her life at the age of 17, Amy knew God was calling her to be more than just a “good little girl.”

A healthy 29-year-old, living a fulfilling life and giving of herself, Amy’s life changed forever when one Saturday night her husband found her on the kitchen floor in the fetal position. Four grand maul seizures later she was diagnosed with a malignant brain tumor and given about six months to live.

God Was Already There

Fear was incapacitating at times, but God had not given Amy a spirit of fear. Claiming that 2 Timothy verse, Amy told Satan to go jump in a lake. She wanted to live and was not ready to meet her maker this way. Embracing the scripture “by His stripes we are healed” Amy pressed on to live.

With her blood too damaged by chemo, there were few options for further treatment. Amy prayed for peace and researched for the open door she knew God had prepared. With faith in God’s promises, she closed her eyes and turned to Him. God opened the door to a closed clinical trial at Duke Hospital. There she found wonderful, positive doctors and a lifetime friend in her nurse, Denise.

It Is Well

Given the opportunity, Amy would not give back the past two years. God’s word became as real and alive as a breathing person. Her understanding of His Word pierced her heart, worship and prayer became alive and intimate. Whether she lives or dies, it is well with Amy’s soul.

Amy’s speech:

I Choose Life!

Stop pouting!
God has a plan whether you like it or not.

Amy’s is the story of a woman who won’t give up life, but gave it up to God. Living through the worst that could happen, she learned God already has her life mapped out.

There is no sense in fearing the bad things because they are what make you strong and complete. Scripture even tells us to consider it pure joy when we face trials. They’re going to happen, so be prepared by having faith and hope because God’s mercies are new every morning.

Because we will all have troubles of some kind, Amy’s encouraging story gives us hope that it is all in God’s plan and He has a purpose. Everything works for the good of those who love Him.

Who should attend?

Anyone who:

- ◆ has faced death or faced it as a caregiver.
- ◆ has felt the impact of despair.
- ◆ suddenly realized they don’t really have control of their own life.
